International Church Organizations (Companion Synods)

Lutheran Church in El Salvador

The LCES provides spiritual guidance, hope and reconciliation to El Salvadoran people who lack fulfillment of basic needs. Unemployment, lack of basic health care, and violence are daily occurrences for some, with women, senior citizens, and children among those most vulnerable. The church works with allied ministries to provide for basic needs, education, and health care for many in urban and rural areas.

Metro DC Synod Social Ministry Organizations (SMO)s

Community Family Life Services

CFLS facilitates personal growth, independence, and integration into a healthy community through a Continuum of Care model for its low-income and homeless clients, regardless of their faith. Its programs in housing, supportive services, emergency services, after school and summer camp, and employment development target the root causes of poverty and homelessness and aim to resolve short-term crises needs, as well as to enable people to achieve permanent economic and social self-sufficiency.

Lutheran Social Services of the National Capital Area

Proclaiming God's grace, LSS/NCA compassionately works to create a society where the most vulnerable among us find wholeness, justice, and self-sufficiency. LSS provides professional social services; assists congregations in identifying and responding to human needs; and advocates for social justice, individual self-sufficiency, and the inherent worth of each human being. LSS is well known for its adoptions program, refugee resettlement and employment services, foster care, innovative programs for youth affected by HIV/AIDS, and emergency preparedness/disaster response.

SE MIN

Fellowship Square Foundation

FSF provides housing and related services to low-income individuals, especially the elderly and handicapped, in the Washington Metro area. More than just a landlord providing shelter and collecting rent, FSF provides a caring staff, a comfortable, secure living environment worthy of being called "home", and special services such as beauty and barber shops, libraries, social halls, recreational facilities, and places for religious expression. Such environments and services enhance the personal freedom, independence, confidence, and well-being of its residents.
