Summer Fun and Learning

This Gift of Hope will help make summer a rewarding time for a formerly homeless child with swimming lessons, camp crafts, tutoring, gymnastics and trips to museums. This activities program makes summer a time for fun and learning.

Good Shepherd Housing Foundation of Prince William County, VA (GSH) is a provider of housing and support services for the homeless and those in imminent danger of homelessness. GSH provides housing and intensive support services for over 80 men, women, and children. Some are single adults with mental illness; some are veterans; and some are families, notably those paying 50% and more of their incomes on housing. Support services include life skills and parenting classes, help with budgeting, and skills testing and evaluations for school-aged children. GSH partners with skilled area service providers who are able to help each participant plot a path to stability.
